

Sen. R. Richards To Review Work Of Legislature

South Bay residents will be visited Saturday by one of California's outstanding experts on state and county government, State Sen. Richard Richards, of Los Angeles County.

Senator Richards will appear at the Dapplegray School, 3011 Palos Verdes Dr., North, Rolling Hills, at a 6:30 p.m. buffet supper, under the sponsorship of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Democratic Club.

Mrs. Fred Allen, Rolling Hills, is in charge of arrangements. Among those assisting her: Mrs. Frank Stanley and Mrs. William Parker of Hollywood Riviera, and Mrs. Shirlee Phillips of Torrance.

The Senator will review the significant trends, developments and results at the recently concluded regular biennial session of the California Legislature. Matters of particular interest and concern to residents of the South Bay area are on the agenda.

William G. Fitzpatrick, Palos Verdes Estates, chairman of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Democratic Club, declared that this is not a partisan rally and everyone is invited.

Hershberger received his LL.B. from the University of California at Los Angeles, School of Law.

While at UCLA he was president of his fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and president of

Harbor Area Welfare Group Announce Aid From State

"Through the legislature's passage of the Community Mental Health Services Bill, communities in Los Angeles County are now enabled to double mental health services without spending an extra cent."

This was reported by Reese Swain, newly-appointed executive director of the Harbor Area Welfare Planning Council who recently attended a meeting of the Mental Health Committee of the Los Angeles Area Regional Welfare Council.

Coordinator Present Mrs. Clarke B. Walsworth, coordinator for the Harbor District, also was present when it was announced that matching state funds would be available to aid in the city-county program.

Mrs. Walsworth commended the Harbor district for its contribution in helping to obtain approval of the new bill.

Present board officers are Mrs. Henry Olsen, secretary; Mrs. Frank Hainline, treasurer; Mr. Ray Choate, vice-president; and Mrs. C. B. Walsworth, president.

Board Members Other members of the board are Commander Tom Adams, Mrs. Orville Brown, Rev. C. Freeman Brunson, Colonel Walter A. Buck, Dr. George Casserly, Harrison Daigh, Dr. David H. Dingilian, Dr. Waldo Dunbar, Dr. Kurt Fantl, J. Ed Foster, Miss Ruth Havens, Mrs. Alvin Hawkins, Chester F. Lancaster, Mrs. Margaret Lund, Louis McCann, Ben McDonald, Miss Kay McGuire, Mrs. Elsa Morris, Mrs. Hazel Newman, Mrs. Jackson Pearson, Miss Josephine Perry, Mrs. Donald Wesler, Rev. Richard Wolf, and including Mrs. Frances Armstrong and Dr. Warren Hamilton of Torrance.

District Aids In addition, the Harbor District Mental Health Service works closely with the following area mental health convenors, Harrison O. Daigh, Redondo Beach; James M. Gladhill of Hermosa Beach; Dr. Warren Hamilton of Torrance; Dr. Beatrice Lantz of Manhattan Beach; Mrs. Margaret S. Lund of Palos Verdes; Dr. Carol E. Smith of El Segundo; and Mrs. Lillie K. Walsworth of San Pedro.

Consultants to the Harbor District Mental Health Service are: Mrs. Miriam Furlong, Dr. B. A. Kogan, Dr. William P. Mull, Dr. Kurt Fantl, and Dr. Victor H. Vogel.

Coast Federal Will Open New San Pedro Office

Residents of Torrance, Rolling Hills, Palos Verdes, Lomita, Harbor City, Wilmington, and San Pedro will be served by a new office of Coast Federal Savings and Loan Association opening Saturday, in San Pedro.

A free boat show and value door prizes will highlight the opening ceremonies scheduled for 11:30 a.m. at 1001 Pacific Ave., San Pedro, site of a new office.

Officials Attend Government and business leaders invited to officiate include Los Angeles City Council member John Gibson, Jr.; Harbor Commissioner Dr. E. C. Spire; A. C. Newell, vice president of the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco; Miss "Coast Federal"; Supervisor Burton Chase; Vern Cross, president of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce; and civic leaders of surrounding communities.

The boat show, on the adjoining parking lot, will include some of the newest models for all-purpose family nautical recreation. Representatives of the builders will be present to describe the vessels. The show will remain open through July 6.

Door Prizes Set Door prizes include the establishment of savings accounts for $150, $100 and $50 for the first three winners and desk pen sets will be given to every person opening an account in excess of $100 during the period June 29-July 10. Anyone opening an account in excess of $1000 will have a choice of binoculars or an all-weather barometer.

In addition, visitors will be offered refreshments and for the younger set there will be balloons.

Ben Karmelich, 33-year-old native San Pedroan and resident there all his life, has been named to manage the new office. Karmelich has several years experience in Coast Federal's loan and savings departments as well as service with several other companies.

Tournaments Scheduled

Shuffleboard tournaments currently are in full swing, according to members of the Torrance Adult Club. Tournaments are being played both afternoons and evenings.

In addition, the group traveled to Highland Park and hosted Long Beach in tournaments. This Saturday Long Beach will be the scene of play.

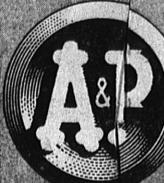

A birthday party was held last Saturday at the clubroom for R. J. Reynolds, Henry Weaver, Sr., Sydney Pine and Grace Enis. There is a birthday party for members each month.

A painting class is also being conducted on Tuesday mornings at the clubroom with Maude Jepsom and Ann Hight as instructors. Members of the class also provide food. The group has planned a bazaar to be held this fall and the proceeds will be used to purchase additional items for the clubhouse.

NEW BOOKS More than 2000 new books are published in an average year in the U. S. Mystery and detective stories still are in popular demands, the publishing industry statistics show.
